

A quick tip on referencing – Transcript

What advice do you have for better referencing?

Becky: My tip on referencing is ideally, do it when you're doing the reading. It's horrible having to go back and search through an article to find a quote. It's even more horrible if you've got a wonderful quote but you can't actually remember where it came from. So the answer is: do it when you're reading.